Greetings From Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury

We are certainly in unprecedented times. Never before has RWC turned 35 years old. (Pause) You thought I was going to reference the pandemic, didn't you? Well, we are determined to focus this 35th Anniversary Annual Report on everything that defines the great and meaningful mission of Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury and personality of its people, residents, Boards, staff, benefactors and friends. We will not be defined by the pandemic.

In these pages you will see the rich history of RWC through our reflections on the journey that has brought the organization to where it is today and where it can reach tomorrow. The long-standing mission of the Foundation has been to ensure that residents can always call RWC home despite any financial misfortune. Before the doors opened in 1985, the Boards and benefactors were ensuring that would be a mainstay. You, our faithful benefactors, ensure through your faithful generosity that continues as we go forward.

Staff are vital to the care, services, and programs RWC provides to residents, clients, and the greater community. In this Annual Report, we celebrate our entire staff with a special focus on those who have shared their gifts and talents with residents, clients, and families for as much as 35 years. The loyal and faithful caregivers of RWC answer the call—the call to serve day and night, in fair and foul weather, and through the easiest and most trying of times.

Residents from all walks of life and with all manner of life experiences contribute to the unique personality and charm of RWC. From all parts of the United States and abroad, from all professions and accomplishments, and from all interests and pursuits, residents comprise a remarkable group of people supporting and encouraging each other through life.

Together these intertwined and inseparable constituencies draw on the rich stores of resilience to engage with compassion and empathy in support of each other. That is what RWC has been about since inception and God-willing, what it will be about for decades to come. Thank you for supporting RWC through some or all of its first 35 years of service and thank you in advance for your commitment to ensure this mission continues long into the future.

Remembering Our Past. Looking to the Future.

Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury, a church-related, continuing care community, has a rich past full of faith, tenacity, and perseverance. This year RWC celebrates 35 years of service. We continue our commitment to providing the highest quality living experience for senior adults in the Northern Neck-Middle Peninsula area. RWC was a dream of Mr. W. Garland Clarke, Capt. Thomas Denegre, Jr., Mr. W. Henry Edwards, and The Rev. Robert Sheeran. In the early eighties, these men, along with The Rev. Henry Lown, Mr. Richard Weber, Mr. Wellford Sanders and Mr. Douglas D. Monroe, Jr. started a group called The Rappahannock Retirement Associates as a steering committee. This committee, in association with Westminster Presbyterian Homes and Virginia Diocesan Homes, formed a Board of Trustees to develop the idea of Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury. Over $500,000 in gifts and pledges were raised to support the formation of the continuing care community. After much perseverance, Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury was dedicated September 7, 1985. Its first president was Rexford Beckwith, III and its first resident was Mr. Leonard Carlton.

Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury opened its doors with cottages, a small health center area, and an apartment building. With the aid of additional sponsorships and donations from donors like you, RWC has grown from a 113-acre facility to 165 acres and added 46 free-standing homes and a state-of-the-art fitness facility. Outreach programs extend essential services to the greater community such as At Home with RWC, the Parkinson's Support Group and Memory Support Groups.

RWC is a welcoming neighborhood and a partner to the greater community. Our journey is filled with compassionate, creative solutions to aid a much deserving family community. Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury is proud to be home to compassionate staff committed to residents, clients, and families of today and the future. We would not be where we are today without them or supporters like you.

New Life Enrichment Center Includes a Fitness and Aquatics Center

Adjacent to the Chesapeake Center on the RWC campus at 132 Lancaster Drive, Irvington, the new center includes a fitness area with exercise equipment, a yoga room, locker rooms and classrooms. The heated aquatics area features a 75-foot lap pool with three swim lanes, a wheelchair ramp and a large exercise area for water aerobics and other exercise programs. The resident life and arts classrooms provide ample space for a variety of activities including an amateur radio station and a woodworking shop.

Currently 80% of RWC residents participate in some form of wellness activities. More than 20 fitness classes are held on-site each week, as well as special programs to serve the needs of those with Parkinson's and their caregivers. RWC is known nationally for its high wellness participation rate among residents and has been recognized by the International Council on Active Aging for its Mind & Muscle speaker series.

At Home with RWC

In 2017, Rappahannock Westminister-Canterbury noticed a growing need for those individuals who wanted to age in place. RWC developed At Home with RWC, a fee for service program, which provides individuals on campus and in the community exceptional care in their own homes. Nurses assist with such activities such as bathing, grooming, dressing, mobility, medication reminders, transportation, housework and more.

Macular Degeneration Support

The Macular Degeneration Support Group debuted September of 2019 and has about 12 attending. The group was started from a resident request for support of those who are suffering from the disease.

Community Outreach Parkinson Support

RWC founded its Parkinson Support Group in 2003, following a request of Carl and Patricia Morris, who saw the need for assistance in this area. Kori Poplin and Patricia Nystrom coordinated the program. Mrs. Rita DePew has since taken the mantle as volunteer leader of the group. Included in the program are members of the local community who join our residents in an array of activities which include the Fit to Move program and the Care Partner Group. The group of members, which include caregivers and their spouses, has grown to about 100 people.

Memory and Caregiver Support

Since Rappahannock Westminister-Canterbury cares about the needs of its residents a Dementia Care Consultant was chosen and Memory Support Groups were initiated.

RWC chose Mary Arthur to become a Dementia Care Consultant. The Health Services Administrator at the time saw Mary interacting with those with dementia. She noted the kindness and the compassion that Mary Arthur exuded for those with Dementia. Mary Arthur remembers:

“I worked at the Health Center desk, and we had a resident who worked for the phone company for years and she had Alzheimer’s. She would often try to answer our phones, and I set up a desk for her with a phone, notepad, and pen. She would stay engaged there and after that, Mary Estes asked if I would like to attend a Teepa Snow training and I was thrilled. I became a Certified Dementia Care Trainer and then a Certified Dementia Care Practitioner. A couple of years later, I became a Dementia Care Consultant.”

Mary works very hard each day to make residents she engages with are cared for as if they were her grandmother.

RWC also recognized the need for caregivers of those with Dementia to interact with others like themselves, so the Memory Support Group was developed. The Memory Support Group started on October 3, 2016 in partnership with the Alzheimer’s Association with Ellie Galloway as its initial facilitator. Amy Lewis became facilitator about six months later. It quickly grew from about 6 or 8 people to about 30 participants. In 2017, Mary Arthur and Amy Lewis realized that caregivers have difficulty attending support groups because their loved one is left alone with no one to care for them, so they started three support groups in one in to address care-giving issues.

The Caregiver Support Group, the Early Stage Group, and the Late Stage Group allow the caregiver to attend the caregiver group while their loved one participates in activities that stimulate their brains. Lisa Thomas, Speech Pathologist, also helps with stimulation. These ladies then started a free dinner following the support group. They developed this social event after the group meetings and it quickly became a hit. This one night a month may be the only night the caregiver and person living with dementia can go out to eat anywhere. This allows these individuals a short break from a very stressful situation.

Kudos to RWC's Long-Serving Staff

Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury is blessed to have staff that serve the community for many years. We have two staff members, Genita Maiden-Shearin and Lillian George, that have continually served since 1985. Ten employees who started in the first two years have served our community for a total of 324 years combined. A few of those employees decided to broaden their horizons but then returned home to RWC.

At Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury we value the caring relationships that are developed between staff and residents. We honor and value the gifts, talents and contributions of each staff member who works here. Without their caring service to our residents, we would not have become the community that we are today.

“[RWC is a] Great place to work. I was an employee there on two different occasions. I worked there as a Front Desk Receptionist and then as a Unit Secretary. I loved interacting with the residents and their families. The environment is so nurturing, and family-oriented as well as professional. What a great combination. I still to this day some 20 years later pray for the residents I used to work for. I would recommend residency and/or employment at RWC.”

The Small House Project

This year the Small House project moved from dream to reality. With a generous and unexpected $500,000 donation from Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Birdsong, III, and the Birdsong Charitable Foundation, RWC decided to move forward with the project which will bring an amazing residential care setting to residents who will most benefit from supportive care in a home-like environment.

The Small House is a residentially styled, specially equipped home with eight private suites each featuring a sleeping area, living space and a full private bathroom with shower. Residents will likely spend more time enjoying the large, bright activity space, full kitchen and home-like dining area, safe outdoor space, and engaging programming developed by the residents and their specially trained and dedicated team of enablers. The Small House features a service garage for the delivery of supplies, food, and supportive services and full generator power enabling the House to function independently.

The Small House brings this innovative environment and approach to supportive living and care to residents of RWC and the Northern Neck like no other local care organization currently provides. The potential for improved resident quality of life far

Mr. and Mrs. Birdsong, III, and the Birdsong Charitable Foundation. This generosity will enable the Small House to come to life with no debt to serve residents who need its special exceeds what is possible in traditional or institutional care settings because great care is provided in a home-like, supportive environment. Caregivers also benefit from the home-like environment in which to care for residents.

We are excited to see this vision and dream come to fruition through the extremely generous gifts and bequests of residents past and present, family members and the enthusiastic leadership support of living and programming qualities. Design and permitting are underway with the goal of beginning construction in the fall of 2020 and opening the Small House in 2021.

“Giving back is a value our founder, T. H. Birdsong, III, not only lived but also instilled in his family. That commitment to make the world a better place continues today as we partner with our customers and communities to make a difference.”

Celebrate RWC's 35th Anniversary by Giving Today to the Faithfully Funding Fellowship Program

You now have an opportunity to make an enduring impact on the RWC community. Rappahannock Westminster-Canterbury is committed to providing the highest quality living experience for senior adults. We endeavor to be a place of security, peace, protection, and love for all who come here. Consider the Faithfully Funding Fellowship Program to make monthly contributions to the mission of your choice. You can change the lives of residents and those in the greater community while also creating a sustainable source of support for the future for anyone who needs it. A gift of any amount will greatly enhance the well-being of others. The program consists of 4 components.

BECOME A FELLOWSHIP FUND FRIEND

A Fellowship Fund Friend supports those residents who may have outlived their resources or have fallen upon difficult circumstances where they can no longer afford to maintain residency at RWC. Life can involve unexpected obstacles and even with the most prudent of planning finances can fall short. A Fellowship Fund Friend helps residents who need the help to continue the excellent care that they receive at RWC. Twenty-five dollars a month will meet the need of 10% of a resident's monthly fees. Please consider becoming a Fellowship Fund Friend today.

HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

This program supports the Small House project to provide those items that make those living with Dementia feel more at home. The Small House concept benefits dementia patients in giving them a more secure and home like environment to live with dignity and individuality. The Small House has been designed with great love and care. You can participate by donating funds to purchase items that will make our Small House a comfortable home to residents struggling with this horrible disease.

RWC CARING COMMUNITY

Consider support for the following programs that enhance the greater community:

- The Parkinson's Support Group and Memory Support Groups assist in aiding those with the diagnoses of these diseases and giving their caregivers an opportunity to know that they are not alone in their day to day struggles.
- The Life Enrichment Center was designed to develop and enhance lives through exercise and the creativity of art.
- Nursing Scholarships allow staff members who desire to become nurses the opportunity to be able to reach their dreams of serving people in a medical profession.

HOPEFUL HERITAGE SOCIETY

Those who join this Society want to leave a legacy with RWC for future generations to come. Dr. Marjorie Atwood was a former resident who left a bequest to RWC to develop a Health and Wellness program which was started in 2005. Heritage Society members are those who have made or will make a planned gift(s) to the RWC Foundation to assure continued residency for those with depleted resources. They may also deem resources to a RWC mission they deeply care about.

PLEASE PARTNER WITH US AS WE CONTINUE TO SERVE OUR RESIDENTS AND OUR COMMUNITY.
